

North Bellmore Civic Association MINUTES

Meeting Date: December 10, 2007

---

Bob Podolksi introduced David Denenberg who spoke for a few minutes before going to another meeting. He also introduced Mark Bonilla who thanked people for their support in recent election.

Thereafter Police Officer Bonila spoke and said they are still investigating shooting on Newbridge. Also said we have to be aware of different scams. If you have a problem call 911 or 573-6170.

After police officer spoke minutes of previous meeting were read.

There was then a discussion about large housing builder wants to build in Hempstead area and that there are many protests.

Mentioned also was the wine store Thrifty Beverage wants to buy.

Steve Kozlowski mentioned Inspector Caprice and said he spent long time meeting with board.

Gentleman not able to come from Bel-Aire to this meeting but will try to come to next meeting. They are also working on new wings for the nursing home.

Thereafter Mr. Nunez introduced the Mephram Choir. The students sang a few songs very nicely.

Regarding the Walk In Love Church – this will be a court matter.

Thereafter there were discussions about leaf pickup, new 99 cent store, Dunkin Doughnuts and what traffic conditions will evolve, Stop and Shop closing for awhile – but not sure when.

Stu Weinstein mentioned sewage district consolidation.

There was also talk about the Jerusalem Avenue Project and when it will take place. Various ways to get project underway were discussed

Meeting was over at 8:45pm.